VOL. XVII.—NO. 73. PORTLAND, OREGON: MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1877. PRICE—TEN CENTS

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

The St. Louis Disaster.

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—The coroner's jury in the inquest on the victims of the Southern Hotel disaster closed their labors this afternoon. Prior to rendering the jury reached, the conclusion that they fire originated in the basement, possibly in the wine cellar, near the bottom of the baggage elevator, which carried the smoke and flames almost instantly to the upper floors and roof of the building. The jury then recounted the delay in giving an alarm to the fire department. In the opinion of the jury the rescues of the hotel are censurable in several particulars: first, while providing the necessary materials for extinguishing fires, they had provided no means for their use; second, in depositing in the store house and wine cellar a large amount of inflammable material without adequate watchmen; third, removal from their office of the night clerk, necessary to alarm the inmates of the house in case of fire; fourth, employing only one watchman, and he a very inefficient man, and neglecting his duties as such with the watchmen; fifth, in the lack of rules and instructions to employes as to their conduct and duties in case of fire; sixth, in their failure to make efficient efforts on the night of the fire to awaken the guests and employes. From this the jury make suggestions looking to the avoidance of such calamities in the future, which may be summed up as follows: That no hotel or public building should be provided with the means of extinguishing fires, that a sufficient number of watchmen should be employed to detect fire and drilled in the use of appliances for extinguishing it; that in all large hotels, gongs or bells large enough to be heard throughout the house should be rung continuously till the safety of every guest and employe is assured; that stairways and elevators should be placed as far apart as possible; that elevators should be closed automatically or otherwise as the platform goes up or down; that the store rooms, wine cellars, carpenter shops, etc., should be made fireproof and carefully watched day and night; that no gas metre should be allowed inside of such building.

Heavy Transactions in Mowers.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 28.—The largest shipment of mowers ever made at one time at any point, east or west, arrived here this evening from the West, consigned to Lee & Bro., Baltimore. The train, which consisted of 72 cars, containing 1,700 machines, left Springfield, Ohio, Tuesday. The train was about half a mile in length. Flags and other decorations covered the cars and machines. The cash value of the machines is a matter of million dollars, and all are intended for points east of this city.

The Emma Mine Suit.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Counsel for plaintiff in the Emma mine suit closed the argument this p. m. The judge will charge the jury this evening.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The suit of the Englishmen of the famous Emma Mine vs. Wm. W. Park and others, to recover the millions paid for it, alleging that there was fraud and misrepresentation on the part of the defendants in regard to the resources of the mine, was to-day in a verdict for the defendants. The verdict was received with demonstrations of joy, which, however, were speedily checked by Mr. Crittenden, of counsel for defendants. Mr. Trenor W. Park, principal defendant, sat in a chair almost powerless with emotion and tears burst from his eyes. Having composed himself he shook hands with the jury and received the congratulations of his friends, with whom the court-room was almost crowded.

The Mountain Mining Company.

NEW YORK, April 28.—L. M. Northrup, of 16 Broadway, counsel for the Silver Mountain Mining Company, whose mines are said to be in Wyoming Territory, called yesterday on Superintendent Walling and charged him with impairing the reputation of the company in representing its character and declaring it a swindle. Northrup produced a copy of the act of incorporation, vouchers, and other documents, showing the organization of what it is represented to be. The Superintendent says he formed this impression of the character of one of the persons already connected with it, but he is satisfied the company is legally incorporated. He knows of no one who has been defrauded by it.

An Ingenious Plan Foiled.

The Sun has the following story: The steamer John Bramhill, running between Glasgow and New York, left here at 4 Saturday morning last, instead of 3 P. M. Some thirty or forty disappointed passengers were left behind. The first theory was that the Turkish government had sent a telegraphic order on Friday night for the steamer to leave New Haven at once, as the cargo of arms and ammunition on board was very much wanted at Constantinople. The facts seem, however, to contradict this theory. The steamer was sent some three weeks ago to New Haven to take a cargo of arms and ammunition from Providence for the Oleo and Winchester Arms Co., and to convey it to Turkey. This cargo is estimated at 100,000 stand of arms. She completed on Friday and a number of passengers had secured berths on board the steamer. Some way it leaked out, however, that these passengers were not a very desirable set of men to have on board. A secret stock company seems to have been formed for the purpose of making an honest penny out of the traffic in war materials between this country and the belligerent powers. The plan was an ingenious one. Thirty or forty steady passengers were to be placed on board each steamer leaving American waters with war material either for Russia or Turkey. As soon as the steamship was fairly at sea, the supposed passengers were to take possession of her and sail her to St. Petersburg if she was intended for Constantinople, and to Constantinople if she was intended for St. Petersburg. The proceedings seemed a legitimate business to the originators of this piratical company and a cargo worth one million dollars was certainly a very tempting prize. The captain of the John Bramhill seems to have got wind of the project and to have preferred to leave his passengers behind.

The Fleet will Remain.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The World says the Russian fleet will remain with us unless the authorities at Washington object. The Admiral told the World interviewer he had received no orders to leave.

More about the Russian Fleet.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The Sun reiterates that everything aboard the Russian fleet indicates a speedy departure. The vessels have coaled and provisioned, and the seamen are not allowed on shore.

Bourtakoff says the report that Russian merchantmen are being transferred to the American flag is untrue. No foreign vessel can be transfered to our flag unless she has been wrecked on our coast and rescued by Americans, and two-thirds of her value spent in repairs. Says that it is only a ghost story about the Pacific Mail Co. selling off their China steamships to the Russians. Russia couldn't do anything with them after she bought them.

Maritime Decision.

In the suit of Charles H. Marshall & Co. for $225,000 damages claimed for sinking the ship Harvest Queen in the Irish Channel on the 13th of December, 1875, by the steamer Adriatic, the judge dismissed the libel with costs.

Lingering Winter.

OMAHA, April 28.—Passengers who arrived from the east this morning report several inches of snow between Avoca and Creston, Iowa. It snowed here hard all the afternoon, but now it is clear. The storm was general throughout this section.

Reports from various sections of the State show that the crops are in most excellent condition.

For the Seat of War.

NEW YORK, April 28.—George Wright, of the Chicago Tribune, and Henry F. Keenan, of the Chicago Times, were among the passengers for Europe to-day. They go out as war correspondents of their respective journals.

Murderer Convicted.

ST. ALBANS, V., April 28.—Edward Tatro was to-day found guilty of the murder of Mrs. A. Buller, at Highgate, on the 2d of June last.

A Presbyterian's Crookedness.

RICHMOND, April 28.—East Hanover Presbytery having under investigation the accounts of Bailey, former Secretary of the Presbyterian publication committee, voted unanimously to depose him from the ministry and suspend him from the communion of the church. Bailey's whereabouts is unknown.

Hampton's Ungratefulness.

CHICAGO, April 27.—The Journal's Washington special says: The fact that Hampton, in his message to the legislature of South Carolina yesterday, makes no reference to compliment or thank the government, is much talked about in political circles, and there are various speculations as to his motives. To-day Gen. Banks expressed great surprise at the omission, and thought it showed a want of appreciation for what President Hayes has done for the Democratic party of South Carolina. "As Hampton was made Governor," said Banks, "by order of the President, and not by the votes of a majority of the people of South Carolina, he should have taken the first official opportunity to thank the President and administration for their action. Hampton's failure to do so is significant, and indicates clearly that the troubles in South Carolina are not in reality over, and that his promises will not be kept.

The Ellerton-Hamburg Riots.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The Times' Columbia special says true bills have been found against 200 men of Edgefield and Barnwell counties by the grand jury of the U. S. Circuit Court in Charleston for participation in the Ellerton riots. The grand jury, before being adjourned requested the district attorney to send in the bill against participants in the Hamburg affair. The evidence in the Ellerton cases plainly showed that Hamburg was the first act in the political conspiracy to carry the State by violence, and that the Ellerton was only the next step. The district attorney says with the evidence he now has he would be willing to go before a jury composed of Northern Democrats. It is certain that true bills will be found in the Hamburg cases when the court reassembles in May; when the Chief Justice presides. The strongest efforts are being made to secure the aid of the President to stop these prosecutions. Resolutions are now before the Senate charging that the prosecution is a political one and requesting the President to stop them in furtherance of his policy of conciliation.

A South Carolina Judgeship.

The defeat of Willard, renegade Republican, for Chief Justice is considered certain. Gen. McGowan, a distinguished Confederate officer, will carry off the place.

A Judge to be Investigated.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 28.—The House of Representatives to-day by 76 to 13 passed a resolution introduced by Charles Minor, colored, that a committee be appointed to inquire into all matters pertaining to the propriety of the official conduct of Wright, associate justice of the Supreme Court of South Carolina, and authorizing the committee to send for persons and papers and report by resolution or otherwise.

The South Carolina Legislature.

No other Republicans have been seated in the house. Lee, the member from Chester, has been excluded on the charge that he was postmaster when elected. He was not notified to appear before the committee. He could have proved that his resignation was accepted before the election. The highest Democratic candidate was seated on the Cronin plan. Thus far no white man from the Republican ranks has been admitted.

Brother Casey to Step Out.

The Times Washington special says: It is probable a successor to Collector Casey at New Orleans will be appointed soon. Packard appears to be a candidate. General Anderson will probably be a candidate also.

Dubois gave a graphic and detailed account of the encounter.

The Whisky Prosecution to be Urged.

The commissioner of internal revenue has sent to certain district attorneys in prominent cities letters calling attention to whisky prosecutions yet unfinished, and urging vigorous measures to secure the payment of all liabilities and the execution of judgments. Officers are cautioned against unnecessary delay or laxness, and are informed that their duties will not be considered fulfilled until the amounts are covered into the Treasury. The authorities say they should be advised of any attempt to evade payment by connivance, etc., and any property of debtors' held by the district should be attached by process of law. The Washington office should be kept advised of various proceedings.

Much Asked for the Indians.

Minister Recalled.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Dr. Santrago Percy for some time past minister resident of Colombia, here, has been recalled.

The New Ministers.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Ex-Gov. Noyes, who succeeds Minister Washburne at Paris, will probably not relieve the latter until late in the summer.

Kasson, recently appointed minister to Spain, has gone to California, but will return next month.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The appointment of ex-Governor Noyes of Ohio as Minister to France has been agreed upon and he has accepted the position.

The New Orleans Collectorship.

CHICAGO, April 28.—A Tribune's Washington special says: Packard's application for the collectorship at New Orleans has been formally made to the President through Marshall Pitkin. It is said, however, the President does not desire to appoint Packard to any place in Louisiana, fearing it will perpetuate party animosities, but it is probable he will be tendered a South American or Central American mission. Gen. Anderson, of the returning board, also wants the collectorship, and is earnestly supported by Secretary Sherman. There are several other candidates.

Will not Recommend a Pardon.

NEW YORK, April 28.—A Washington special says Attorney General Devens will not recommend the pardon of Joyce, convicted at St. Louis for complicity in illicit distilling.

It is his aim to maintain its perpetuity. He will especially aim to protect the colored people in the South.

THE EASTERN WAR.

A Two Days' Battle.

LONDON, April 27.—A telegram from Hassan Pasha, commander of the division at Batoum announces that the battle at Tahokson which began on Wednesday, continued on Thursday.

England About to Interpose.

LIVERPOOL, April 27.—A London dispatch says the British government has resolved to interfere between Russia and Turkey. It is stated that Her Majesty's government has been called upon by Austria to fulfill her engagement under the treaty of 1856, for protecting the integrity of the Ottoman Empire, and has decided as the first step to make a formal request to the Russian government to state the object of military operations now going on against the Ottoman Empire, and to define the extent to which it is proposed to carry such operations. It is stated that the Austrian government will make enquiry of the same purport. France, the third party to the tripartite alliance, has not been required to take action in consideration of the relations between France and Germany. The treaty allows any one of the three powers to act separately in fulfilling its terms, or to call upon either of the powers to fulfill the treaty by joint action. Austria has obvious reasons for not embarrassing France, yet Austria cannot longer hesitate for resisting Russian invasion. Though Earl Derby was able to confidently state a week ago that England was not likely to be called on to fulfill the tripartite treaty. Yet within six days the British government has actually been required to fulfill the undertaking, and it is anticipated that the moment our alternative of declaring against Russia will arise shortly. The situation is regarded at Vienna as far more serious than British statesmen seem to admit, and the initiative of military action lies with Austria. It was reported last night that Lord Napier, Governor of Gibraltar, has been instructed to go to Malta, and that a portion of the guards are ordered to embark for Malta immediately. These reports are believed premature, although it is understood the strengthening of the garrison at Malta has been under official consideration since the government received from Vienna the requisition to fulfill the tripartite treaty.

Russian and Turkish War Movements.

LONDON, April 27.—A telegram from Erzroum says the Russians are invading Turkish territory between Batoum and Bayazid, and have seized 6,000 bushels of grain at Adjakady. The Turks are advancing toward Alexandrinople in three columns. Little is expected at Kischineff.

Order of the Day to Russia.

Grand Duke Nicolais has issued the following order of the day to the troops:

The Christians oppressed by the Turkish yoke rose against their oppressors and their blood has been shed for the last two years. All efforts of Russia and the powers to ameliorate their condition having been fruitless, the last word of the Czar has been spoken and war declared. The Czar entrusts me with the mission of accomplishing his will. We do not want to make conquests, but to defend our brethren oppressed for Christ's sake. I am convinced that each of you will do his duty and honor the Russian name. All peaceable inhabitants, without distinction of religion or nationality, will be sacred in our eyes. You will take nothing without payment. I require that extremely severe discipline must be maintained. We pass on our way through Roumania, where I am sure we shall meet with the same hospitality as our ancestors. I demand that you respect the established laws of the countries, and, if necessary, afford Roumanians disinterested aid against the Turks.

Germany Declines Turkey's Request.

BERLIN, April 27.—It is stated that cabinet counsel resolved to decline to act upon the Turkish request for mediation of the Powers.

English Views on the War.

LONDON, April 27.—In the House of Lords, Lord Stratheden asked how far the government concurred in the statement of the Russian circular that the Czar represented the views and interests of Europe. Earl Derby replied that England was in no way bound to an expression of opinion on the circular.

In the House of Commons, Marquis Huntington said Monday he would ask whether the government intends issuing a proclamation respecting the search of neutral vessels for articles contraband of war.

Russia's Belligerent Rights.

LONDON, April 27.—The Pall Mall Gazette says Russia would be acting entirely within her belligerent rights in the Porte and Egypt by force, but it must be remembered this would be an act of war, and should be followed if not preceded by a declaration of war.

Tired of Talk.

The Times deprecated the endless panic concerning the war, and says England may have to strengthen her fleet in the Mediterranean, and send it nearer the scene of action. During the Franco-German war, England had deep and real interests to guard, but the nation displayed no weak or noisy alarm. We assumed that we were perfectly able to defend our interests if they were attacked, and meanwhile we maintained the strictest neutrality. We cannot do better than follow the precedent we then set ourselves.

Getting into Position.

LONDON, April 27.—The Times Vienna special says the left wing of the Russians which crossed at Belgrade is taking up position at Gaiatz, and will form a pivot on which the rest of the army from the North, will wheel, changing its position which has been along the Moldavian frontier to the Danube southward. The roads through Moldavia are available for this movement. The troops who crossed at Husch will doubtless use the road which is partially converted into a highway running from Jassy via. Sistin to Berlat, where it branches off one side to Galatz and on the other to Tokschaul, Rimimik, Busco and Burcharest. The right wing, and no doubt almost all lighter war material will go from Jassy westward to the valley of the Sereth, along which a railway and good high roads run down to Faschani. Although, owing to the railway and these two high roads through Moldavia, the march of the Russian right and left wings to the Danube will be much facilitated, it must be some weeks before they can be brought to positions on the line with the left wing, and especially before all the material can be brought up as it must be before an advance can be attempted across the Danube. This would not of course prevent operations on part of the Russians to establish themselves on some point on the right bank of the Danube. The most likely point for such preliminary steps would seem to be the bend of the Danube round the Dombrischa. This part of the Danube had not been included by the Turks in their line of defence as being so much out of the way, so that little or nothing has been bestowed on strengthening Hergova, Matchin Isak, Tahi and Gulcha. Suddenly, however, the original plan seems to have again been changed. The troops and guns have been sent and new entrenchments erected, but it may be doubted whether they are in a state to make a vigorous defense unless indeed the Turks have found a man who will show the Russians what may be done with flotillas on the river. The Russian engineers have arrived at Turseverin. The supposition is that they intend bringing over from the Timok the remaining portion of the Russian volunteers and use them in the first instance before the Turks, should they cross.

Turkish Vessels in the Sereth.

BUCHAREST, April 28.—Two Turkish monitors, each carrying 50 guns, advanced yesterday to the mouth of the river Sereth to take soundings.

Russians at Barbaschi.

Russians continue to concentrate at Barbaschi.

The railways from Jassy to Fecquill and Dohlaska to Pascani are interrupted by floods.

Roumanian Council.

The Roumania chamber of deputies adopted a bill authorizing an appropriation for the army. The government will probably refer political questions to the chamber to-morrow with a view of eliciting its decision.

Montenegrin Forces.

LONDON, April 28.—Gen. Vukovitz, the Montenegrin leader, has been ordered to Gravanon, where an advance guard of Montenegro is stationed. Another leader has been sent to Drobinac with 1,000 men to assume the offensive in the direction of Bevine. Another force has occupied Sistane, Albania.

The Danube Closed.

LONDON, April 28.—The Pall Mall Gazette says the Danube is declared closed to navigation by the Russian commander. No inward vessels will be allowed to pass after Sunday.

The Khedive is reported favorable to the neutralization of the Suez Canal. He is willing to sell his 150,000 shares.

England's Part in the Question.

MANCHESTER, April 28.—The Guardian says it is rumored that there is a conflict of opinion between Lord Beaconsfield and his colleagues as to the part England shall take in the Eastern question.

An army corps of 40,000 men are being prepared for dispatch to any points where English interests require. Probably they will rendezvous at Malta or Gibralter.

Poti Bombarded and Burned.

LONDON, April 28.—A special from Pera reports that the town of Poti has been bombarded and burned by the Turks.

Newspaper Men Expelled from Kischineff.

The Augsburg Gazette reports that German newspaper correspondents have been expelled from Kischineff after being subjected to inhuman treatment.

Inhabitants Fleeing.

A dispatch from Bucharest mentions a report that the Turks have taken possession of a wooded island between Kalarash and Silestria when the inhabitants fled. Public feeling in Bucharest inclines more and more to an alliance of Roumania with Russia.

The Roumanian Ministry.

It seems likely that the chamber will vote absolute confidence in the present ministry, and will indemnify them beforehand for any measures they may choose to take.

Russo-Austrian Relations.

CRACOW, April 28.—Gen. Degenfeld, who went to the frontier to greet the Czar for the Emperor of Austria, has returned here. He was received very cordially by the Czar who repeatedly laid stress on the excellent relations existing between Austria and Russia.

From Alexander to Charles.

BUCHAREST, April 28.—The Czar's Adjutant General has arrived with an autograph letter from the Czar to Prince Charles, explaining and apologizing for the entry of Russians into Roumania before the meeting of the Chambers.

Sundry War Items.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 28.—The Russians have occupied Gulerevo on the Danube. Renewed fighting near Batoum, according to accounts received, has resulted unfavorably for the Russians.

The Ottoman fleet is bombarding the Russian fortified harbor of Poti.

The Porte has issued another manifesto and declared that Bosnia, Bulgaria and Herzegovina were in a state of insurrection and that the Servian and Montenegrin declarations of war were instigated by the Russian manifesto and concludes with the declaration that Turkey is ready to fight to the death for independence.

The object of the Sultan's mission to Cabul is to ask the ameer to form a confederation of the Semitic states.

It is stated that the Turkish commanders at Scutari and in Herzegovina commenced a simultaneous offensive movement about Montenegro.

The reports of unfriendliness between Turkey and Prussia are denied.

The Fight at Batoum.

Hasham Pasha telegraphed from Batoum Thursday stating that the second day's fighting resulted in favor of the Turks who were well under shelter and unaffected. Considerable losses of Russians.

The Porte and Servia.

A Vienna special says the Porte has resolved to await further development of events before pressing its claims to occupy portions of Servia. It has arrived at this decision through foreign influences.

Arms for Roumania.

A large consignment of arms for Roumania has been stopped at several railway stations in Galicia.

Kalafat Evacuation.

A dispatch from Vienna says the occupation of Kalafat has been given up from strategical reasons, so that the danger of a collision between Turkey and Roumania seems obviated.

Turkish Fleet at Odessa.

A special from Constantinople, Friday, says it is stated that the Turkish fleet is off Odessa but has not yet received instructions to bombard the city.

Turks on the March.

Yesterday and during last night twelve thousand Turkish troops left for Trebizende. Several English newspaper correspondents accompany them.

The Losses at Batoum.

A Turkish official telegram places the loss of the Russians in the first day's fight near Batoum at eight hundred, as already stated, and reports a Turkish loss on the same occasion at eight killed and twelve wounded. This telegram is obviously untrue.

Nicholas and His Troops.

A trustworthy special from Kischineff Thursday says Grand Duke Nicholas and staff will not cross the frontier for some days. The health of the troops is excellent in spite of the coldness of the weather.

Roumanian Vessels Captured.

A telegram from Bucharest late on Saturday reports that Turkish gunboats had captured three Roumanian vessels. The Roumanian troops around Bucharest have commenced the movement to the Danube.

The Recall of English Officers Denied.

LONDON, April 28.—The Post has reason to believe the statement to the effect that British officers on leave have been requested to join their regiments is inaccurate.

Russian Loss 2,000.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Pera says the Russians altogether, lost about 2,000 men in the battles near Batoum.

Two Forts Partially Destroyed.

Bisphol and Fort St. Nicholas were bombarded and partially destroyed.

Reasons for Russia's Delay.

The Times' dispatch from Bucharest, dated yesterday, says the Russian troops have not moved farther westward than Barbuschi. Their delay is variously commented upon. The most plausible explanation is that their rapid advance at first was due to the persistent report that the Turks intended to destroy the railway bridge. It is not probable that the Russian force now in this province will move much further until overtaken by supports now detained by floods, which interrupt the railways. It is stated that the Russians intend laying a railway line from Berlat or Tekutch to Buzo. This will connect the two lines of railway now existing, and will considerably shorten the distance between Jassy and Bucharest and relieve the Russian line of communication, which is in constant danger of interruption by the Turkish flotilla. The construction of the road will be very easy. The rails are already here. It is said the Russian headquarters will first be established at Plostie, north of Bucharest. I still think a considerable interval will elapse before there is any serious collision with the Turks.

Roumanian Activity.

Great military activity is observable in Bucharest. The Roumanian government is evidently making every effort to be fully prepared for the course to be determined only by the chamber.

Financial Aid.

It is stated that Bleischmedens, Berlin bankers advanced Russia one hundred million roubles at 70.

Russians must Quit Turkey.

A Berlin special states that by the decree of the Porte, all Russian subjects must quit Turkey immediately.

The Pashas in Council.

A despatch dated Rutschuk the 25th, announces that Admiral Hobart Pasha arrived there Tuesday, and Abdul Kerin Pasha, commander in chief, on Wednesday. A council of war was being held. Great excitement among the population.

Turks to Enter Kalafat.

A special dated Orzova 28, says: Kalafat is not yet in possession of the Turks, but it is reported they will enter it to-day.

Refitting the English Navy.

The Times, in its column of marine and naval intelligence, reports that the dock yard authorities at Portsmouth received instructions to use all possible expedition in refitting and completing the Minotaur, Hercules, Triumph, Active and Inconstant for sea. The Minotaur could be sent to sea at once; the Active would require a month of preparation. The Inconstant and Triumph are also in a backward state, but the Thunderer and turret ship Boadicea are quite ready. It is thought the destination which was laid out to proceed to sea, will be changed to the Mediterranean instead. The government has also ordered the speedy completion of all men-of-war building in the Clyde. These include the Nelson and Northampton, ironclads, which are to be armed with four 18 ton, eight 12 ton and six torpedo gunboats. The last are in a forward state. The Nelson and Northampton would, under ordinary circumstances, take about a year to complete. Others are not yet launched. Within the last few days additional hands have been engaged, working extra time on all these vessels.

Capture of a Turkish Camp.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 28.—It is stated that the Russians captured the Turkish camp at Merkasler on Wednesday and afterwards advanced to Kisittach.

The Paris Treaty.

PESTH, April 28.—In the Lower House of the Hungarian Diet to-day the members of the Independent Liberal party announced an interp

WORSE REMAINS BEHIND.

No doubt need be entertained that Tweed's statements, which compromise so many politicians of New York, are substantially true It may be, indeed, that certain persons implicated by him are innocent, for it is possible that brokers who were professing to sell the influence of prominent men were in some cases only making money for themselves To some extent the ex-boss may in this way have been imposed on But it need not be doubted that he paid the money with a supposition that in every case it would go to persons designated, and the result was such that he was satisfied with the investment. He got his legislation for which two hundred thousand dollars was paid, and it gave the opportunity to plunder New York City of many millions. Oakey Hall's ten per cent. fully explains his sudden departure. He says he "wants peace," and just at this time he is better able to find it in distant lands It was a quarrel among the masters of New York that gave the key to the developments. Ex Sheriff O'Brien had a claim for $296,000 against the city for unpaid fees. Tweed says the claim is groundless. But O'Brien demanded payment, and when he couldn't get it he obtained his revenge by furnishing the Times with certain secret accounts which established the criminality of the ring, and gave the clew to all subsequent proceedings.

Tammany, under Tweed's rule, had control of the State as well as the city. The chain will be complete when the facts of ex-governor Hoffman's complicity are made known. These are necessary to complete the connection of events. Although so many others besides Tweed were engaged in this wholesale corruption and robbery, he has hitherto borne the brunt of it alone, and it is not strange that he should now be desirous to tell a little he knows and let his co-partners in the crime have their share of the infamy and the punishment. All who shared the plunder with him deserted him when the storm came, and most of them endeavored to establish their innocence by loud denunciations of their confederate. Tweed is entitled to some sympathy so long as all these rascals are at large. Only a portion of the secrets which Tweed has so long kept are as yet divulged The principal revelations, with particular details, are yet to appear. They are kept back for a time for reasons known to the counsel for the State. We have only had the prelude.

AN IMPORTANT INTEREST.

The sources of wealth open to Oregon and yet altogether untouched, are almost without limit. Look, for instance, at the leather industry in its different branches. A country like ours in which animals of nearly all kinds whose hides are valuable, are multiplied with less expense than any where else in North America; a country which abounds in the most excellent materials for tanning leather, and in which the consumption of articles made wholly or in part from this material, is so large and yearly growing larger, cannot much longer ship hides to distant places and buy back the products at high rates. Surely a spirit of enterprise must soon arise to take advantage of this great opportunity. All the materials are here at hand, not scattered and difficult to bring together, but in juxtaposition and ready for immediate use. Nowhere can the materials of the several branches of this important business be handled at less expense. Of hemlock bark, considered among the best of all barks for tanning, there is an inexhaustible supply. In the Eastern States this bark is bought at rates which would make men rich here to gather it if they could get half the price, and leather is tanned with it which we buy in various forms at prices that pay a profit to those who manufacture it, even at this disadvantage. They actually buy bark from abroad and hides from abroad, and make money by selling us leather, harness, belting and shoes. With the materials in our own hands, and with an increasing consumption among us, is this much longer to continue? Not a single reason exists why this business should not be as profitable here as elsewhere. Once started, it certainly will grow to large proportions. Shipments of hides from Oregon are large, and importations of leather and leather goods are enormous, and rapidly increasing. It would be impossible to place too great a value on the development of this industry among us. The money that goes out of this region annually for the purchase of goods in this line is an incredible sum. Expended here in the employment of labor in the different branches of industry connected with the production of leather and the articles manufactured of it, a vast impulse would be given to public prosperity. They who may take hold of this business and handle it intelligently are destined to make a great deal of money out of it. If there is nobody in Oregon who feels disposed to undertake it, then it is to be hoped that we shall soon have hose from other States who have sagacity enough to see what there is in it.

TURKEY HAS NO ALLIES.

The Powers decline to enforce the article of the treaty of Paris which guaranteed the immunity and territorial integrity of Turkey, claiming that this guaranty has been forfeited by the refusal of the Ottoman government to accede to the protocol which the Powers urged it to accept. This leaves Turkey to fight it out alone. It is an incurable fatality that controls the Turk; an inability to comprehend the requirements of a more humane civilization. The Turk is still the Turk of the middle ages. It is his attempt in the last quarter of the nineteenth century to pursue the methods of the middle ages that has alienated Europe from him and left him to fight his battle alone with the great power of the North. Russia is now permitted to make war on Turkey because Europe feels that the government of the latter is a reproach to humanity and ought not to exist longer under present conditions. For peculiar reasons it is Russia that can most fitly undertake the deliverance of the millions oppressed and crushed by Turkish rule The ties of race and of religion make their cause the cause of Russia. Again, there is a treaty with Turkey which gives Russia a protectorate over the principalities. And finally, these motives are powerfully reinforced by Russia's known but unavowed desire to go to Constantinople. The diplomacy of the present quarrel has been so managed as to release the Powers from their obligation to enforce the treaty of Paris, and Russia, having at last detached Turkey's allies from her, may now go on with the war, at least till she unmasks designs of territorial aggrandizement alarming to the rest of Europe.

In Turkey the millions of Christians are serfs, held in a most cruel bondage by a foreign race. Against a Turk no Christian's testimony is accepted; no Christian has a right that can be enforced A bondage so galling naturally has a habit of endurance, and when any sort of resistance is made it is habitually suppressed with a cruelty attended by every circumstance of atrocity and horror. Last year, in Bulgaria, the inhabitants, finding themselves plundered, oppressed and murdered, without hope of redress, made a feeble attempt to rise, which was quelled with atrocities that curdled the blood of civilized nations, and forced the parties to the treaty of Paris to annul that part of the treaty which bound them not to interfere with the internal affairs of Turkey They were compelled to interfere to the extent of demanding reforms of the Turkish government that would insure the treatment of its Christian subjects in a way more conformable to the usages of civilization and humanity In this the other Powers acted with Russia Turkey refused, and her old allies now cannot help her Russia will barely encounter their hostility unless she plainly evinces a design to add the Turkish territories to her dominions

Everybody in Eastern Oregon, the Dalles Tribune says, earnestly desires the construction of the canal and locks at the Cascades If this work were done, and done thoroughly, it would be of advantage to the country, more, however, as leading to further improvements than as a benefit in itself Were it not for the greater interruption to navigation at the Dalles, the importance of a canal and locks at the Cascades could not be overestimated No very great benefits, however, will follow the construction of the locks at the Cascades until a railroad from the interior reaches the Dalles, or until the river is locked from that place to Celilo. To open a passage at the Cascades alone cannot greatly reduce freights But everything must have a beginning, and we cannot get everything at once. An open river from Walla to the ocean is not wholly a dream The immense importance of the country east of the Cascade Mountains is likely to make it a practical reality.

"A German scallawag" is the term by which the Standard designates Secretary Schurz That paper in its efforts to bring about an era of good feeling in politics evidently approves the methods of Hampton's party in South Carolina.

CITY.

STILL ALIVE.—The statement that Mr. Verdier, who met such a dreadful fate at Salem last Friday morning, had formerly done business in Portland with Mr. Tourn[illegible] was incorrect The unfortunate man was a brother of Mr. Bernard Verdier, who has resided some years in this city, and who is also and still engaged in the coffee and spice business on Washington street The announcement was made on partial information only, and we hasten to correct the wrong impression created by it.

LIGHT SNOW.—From Mr. Revnue, of Sandy we learn that at no time last winter was there snow over two feet deep on the Cascade mountains on the Barlow road. Foot passengers and horsemen crossed frequently through the winter, which has seldom or never been done before. The road is now free from snow and there is considerable travel over it.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO VIA VICTORIA.—The following Portland passengers go by steamship Dakota: George Morrow, A. Headrick, G. A. Dell, R. D. Rice, A. S. Rice, Miss M. Wier, Rev. H. W. Stratton, Steerage—D. Curtis J. H. Moulton, E. Tarrant, T. R. Chapman, W. J. Bailey.

OUT-DOOR SPORT.—Prof. Leotard, in a few days, will perform the difficult feat of riding velocipede on a tight rope stretched between two of the highest buildings in the city. A display of fireworks will be made during the performance.

AMUSEMENTS.

IL TROVATORE—FAUST.—Lovers of the opera in this city seldom are afforded an opportunity of enjoying a richer musical treat than was presented last Saturday evening at New Market Theater, announced, Guiseppe Verdi's grand operatic master piece, "Il Trovatore," was rendered in a style never before approached in Portland. In the role of "Leonora," Mme. De Murska added fresh laurels to her many triumphs. If any evidence were wanting to establish Mme De Murska's claim to the well earned sopranship as the Queen of Song, as well as a most accomplished emotional soprano that testimony was certainly forthcoming last evening. Her execution of the more difficult and florid passages was marvelously perfect, and her acting thoroughly artistic and permeated with dramatic feeling and tenderness. Mlle. Beckman as "Azucena," sustained that difficult and exhaustive role admirably, and by her careful singing and acting won golden opinions. Of Mr Habelmann as "Maurico," too much cannot be said in his praise He was in remarkably fine voice, his singing pure and sweet and his acting faultless. Mr. Brogan some of the scenes he rose to a height of tragic intensity and power, which fairly electrified the audience. Twice he was called out in response to prolonged calls. Mr. Lafontaine as "Count Di Luna," acquitted himself handsomely, singing the role with great power and feeling. Never has the opera been produced in Portland so superbly and with such charming effect. At the close all the members of the company were called before the curtain, noth ng short appearing to satisfy the enthusiastic audience. Such a musical triumph has seldom or never been witnessed before.

To morrow evening Mlle De Murska will be the recipient of a grand testimonial benefit. On this occasion a magnificent programme will be presented—Gounod's grand opera of "Faust," complete. For the information of the public we publish the following "argument," which will furnish, in brief, the plot of the opera:

Faust, a student in Germany, after a life of meditation and research became disgusted with human knowledge, and with his own inability to unravel the mysteries of nature. He summons to his aid an evil spirit, who appears under the form of Mephistopheles. By the supernatural power of Mephistopheles he is at once restored to youth with most of its illusions and passions, and, at the same time, is endowed with both personal beauty and splendid attire and Mephistopheles, through a vision, reveals to him the lovely Margaret, with whom Faust immediately falls in love He wishes to become acquainted with her, and his desire is soon after gratified. Margaret, noted both for her loveliness and her virtue, has been left by her brother, a soldier, Valentine, under the care of Dame Martha, a good though not very vigilant personage. The maiden at first rejects the stranger's advances, but Faust, aided by the Cimbalical influence of Mephistopheles (who is anxious to destroy another human soul), urges his suit with such ardor that Margaret's resistance is at length overcome. Margaret's brother, Valentine, when he returns with his comrades from the war, soon learns what has occurred; he challenges the seducer of his sister, but through the intervention of Mephistopheles, he is slain in the encounter. Margaret, who is horror-stricken at the calamity of which she is the cause, gives way to despair. Her reason becomes affected, and in a fit of frenzy she kills her child. She is thrown into prison for the crime. Faust, with the aid of Mephistopheles, obtains access to the cell where she is imprisoned. They both eagerly urge her to fly; but Margaret, in whom holier feelings have gained the ascendant, spurns their proffered assistance, and places her reliance in repentance and prayer. Overcome by sorrow and remorse, and with an earnest prayer for forgiveness, the unhappy girl expires. Mephistopheles thus triumphs at the catastrophe he has been able to bring about, but a chorus of celestial voices is heard proclaiming pardon for the repentant sinner, and the Evil One foiled and overcome. Touches suppliantly as the accents of divine love and forgiveness are heard, while the spirit of Margaret, borne by angels, is wafted to its heavenly home.

Following is the cast of the opera: Margaretha, Madame De Murska; Faust, Theo. Habelmann; Mephistopheles, F. Lafontaine; Valentine, Sig. L. Formilli; Siebel, Mlle L. Beckmann; Martha, ——. This will be the last appearance of the "Hungarian Nightingale," and an overflowing house may be anticipated.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.—Again we desire to call attention to the discourse to be delivered by Dr Brenan on Tuesday evening, May 1st, on "The Throne of the Mind," at Mason c Hall. We are informed by those who have had the good fortune to listen to the doctor's very interesting and highly instructive discourses on the Philosophy of Life, from time to time, that there is nothing stereotyped about them. While he "sticks to his text," he at the same time clothes his thoughts in new and elegant, eloquent and forcible language on each occasion, and being a highly magnetic man with commanding presence, is enabled to hold his audience as by magic, until it becomes necessary for him to bid them good night, and even then they are loth to go. At Gray's music store will be opened to-day a box sheet, where tickets for the course can be secured; also a reserved seat without extra charge. Admission free. Doors open at 7:15; lecture to commence at 8 o'clock sharp. Gentlemanly ushers in attendance. Dr. Brenan can be consulted free or charge at his rooms in the Clarendon hotel, or in his up-town office, in brick block southeast corner Washington and Front streets. Dr. Brenan's office hours are as follows: At Clarendon Hotel from 10 to 12, for the accommodation of down-town people. Office hours in the brick block southeast corner Washington and Front streets, from 1:30 to 5, and from 6 to 8 P. M. Consultations free.

THE ENGLISH OPERA COMPANY.—The Grand English and Comic Opera Company have played an unusually long season in Victoria and to houses which increased night after night. The troupe is now making its way to Portland and will open at New Market theater next Saturday. We learn that Victorians tendered the company a complimentary benefit in order to induce them to remain another night, but without avail. The newspapers filled with laudations, and we therefore let to believe that the company is at present constituted is even better than it was when here a few months ago It is also numerically stronger while the costumes they bring with them are far superior to those worn then. Everybody is in the office of expectation; anxious to welcome the old friends and willing to make the acquaintance of the new members. Miss Lafevre, Miss Chapelle and Mr. Tilla are yet to be judged by us, but we have every reason to believe that we will be thoroughly pleased with them, and their performance.

EGYPTIAN MYSTERY.—This extraordinary combination has arrived and will give their first performance to-morrow evening at Oro Fino Theater. The programme furnishes the names of the following persons Miss Jennie Sherman, Miss Virginia Mason, Miss Ada Duplan, Miss Josie Stuart, George Dunbar, John Sherman, Henry Pendy, Wm. Chambers, Baby Montgomery; conductor, Prof Heller The repertoire includes dances, sketches and songs from Home, Corsican Brothers, The Robbers Saved by Chance and the laughable side splitting extravaganza of The Medical College, or a Doctor's Joke, The Picnic Party, or the Mishaps of Peter Pocket.

PROFESSOR TAYLOR.—To night this very clever and gentlemanly magician will make his first appearance at Reed's Opera House in Salem. He will appear for four nights at that place. His performances in this city have given very general satisfaction and he has uniformly drawn jammed houses. The Professor has fulfilled all his promises to the public in every particular, and we bespeak for him crowded houses such as the merit of his entertainment deserves

In our advertising columns will be seen the table of freight tariffs adopted by the Willamette Transportation and Locks Company. Persons interested will examine the table for themselves. Calling at the office of the com- pany on Saturday afternoon to request infor- mation as to the movements of boats, etc., we were informed that every effort would be made to run boats as far as possible up the river during the summer. The following pro- amble and resolution, adopted by the board of directors, were shown us, a copy of which we requested for publication:

WHEREAS, The Willamette Transportation and Locks Company are the owners of the locks and canal at Oregon City, and a large number of steam- boats and other property upon the Willamette river incidental to the transportation business.

AND WHEREAS, The managers of the said Willamette Transportation and Locks Company are fully convinced that the true interests of this com- pany are identical with the producers and shippers of the Willamette Valley, and that they should mu- tually co-operate to develop the resources of the State.

AND WHEREAS, Said company having already am- ple facilities for transporting the products of the Willamette Valley at all times, (with the necessary means to create additional facilities if required), and believing that the producers, and the public generally are entitled to an assurance on our part that freight on grain and flour shipped by said W. T. & L. Co.'s boats shall not exceed certain fixed rates; therefore be it

Resolved, That for the period of one year from the 1st day of May, 1877, freight on grain and flour SHALL NOT EXCEED the following rates, viz:

[Here follows the table of rates, to be seen in our advertising columns.]

To the above was added a resolution that grain and flour shipped through to Astoria will be charged $1 a ton additional; also, that S. G. Reed, Vice-President of the Com- pany, be authorized, if parties desire it, to enter into contract with them for any specified time not exceeding five years. The ob- ject of this last provision seems to assure a continuance of moderate rates of freight for a long and definite period to such as want to avail themselves of the opportunity.

FISHING NOTES.

All the fisheries on the river are paying or have agreed to pay fifty cents for every salmon de- livered.

A large fish trap has been built by Messrs. Jack- son & Myers on Mrs. Dobinson's place, just be- low Rainier.

There is every prospect of a big run of salmon this season. When the river rises a little the fish will commence to run in great numbers.

A good many fish are being caught at the Cas- cades and shipped to this city. As yet no salmon are being put up there. In the course of a few weeks the cannery will be in full operation.

Only a portion of the fisheries along the Lower Columbia are running at present, owing to the light run of salmon. The canneries which are in operation are only running on about one third time.

Messrs. Jackson & Myers, of Rainier, have put up thus far the present season three hundred and fifty cases of salmon. These cases were brought up yesterday on the Dixie Thompson and will be shipped by steamer to San Francisco and from thence to Australia.

Wightman, the originator and proprietor of the "Wightman Process" for the cure of Piles, blind or bleeding, is at present in San Francisco, California, where all letters should be addressed. Persons desiring the "process" can have it sent C. O. D. by express. The success that Dr. T. F. Wightman had a year since in Oregon in curing the diseases of the rectum will be his recommendation. I refer to the following patients in Oregon—I have no "agents": Jno. M. Bacon, P. M., Oregon City; E. M. Waite, Salem; A. Jennings, engineer O. & C. R. R., and many others.

Her head was almost crushed before the team could be stopped, and she died shortly after- wards.

The Wise Course in Rheumatism.

Rheumatic persons who have been induced to submit to depletion by blood lettings, or to take colchicum and other drugs of an equally perni- cious character, will consult their well being by abandoning such insane procedure, and using as a substitute Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which will infallibly afford them the much desired relief, and is absolutely safe. This benign vegetable depurant cools the blood by expelling from it the inflamma- tory elements which give rise to maladies of a rheumatic and gouty type, and rectifies disordered conditions of the stomach, nervous system and bowels which usually accompany them. As rheu- matism has a tendency to attack the heart, the de- sirability of an early resort to the Bitters is obvious, since the danger is increased by every moment of delay.

We have often wondered whether there is a per- son in the country who does not know and appre- ciate the value of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as a family medicine? It is adapted to most all pur- poses, and is the best pain destroyer that can be used.

Good Advice.

Now is the time of year for Pneumonia, Lung Fever, etc. Every family should have a bottle of BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP. Don't allow for one mo- ment that cough to take hold of your child, your family or yourself. Consumption, Asthma, Pneu- monia, Croup, Hemorrhages and other fatal diseases may set in. Although it is true GERMAN SYRUP is curing thousands of these dreaded diseases, yet it is much better to have it on hand when three doses will cure you. One bottle will last your whole family a winter and keep you safe from danger. If you are consumptive, do not rest until you have tried this remedy. Sample bottles 10 cents; regu- lar size 75 cents. Sold by your Druggist. Agents, Crane & Brigham, Wholesale Druggists, San Fran- cisco.

Lawyer in Trouble.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—The examination of George W Tyler, a prominent lawyer on a charge of larceny, came up before the City Criminal Court to day The charge is brought by J M. Lawler, who accuses Tyler of the larceny of pages 9 and 10 of a certain paper which was at that time in the custody of the Clerk of the City Criminal Court. Several witnesses were examined and it was shown that the papers, which were pages of the Jolly Giant, were brought in as evidence in the trial of Thistleton for libel, and were the only evidence of libel at that time obtainable. The case was submitted, and Judge Ferrall said that the evidence of witnesses showed that Mr Tyler had taken the paper and secreted it and that subsequent denials and evasions on the part of Mr. Tyler were reprehensible. The whole affair was the most reprehensible thing in which he had ever seen a respectable attorney engaged and he must hold Mr. Tyler to appear before the Grand Jury with bail fixed at $30,000

Opium Seizure.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Walter Mead, deputy naval officer, and half a dozen customs officers, made a raid last night at 9 o'clock on the building at No 738 Washington street, occupied by Hop Lee & Co., dealers in general merchandise, and a number of other Chinamen, and seized a lot of crude and prepared opium valued at about $10,000. In the basement of the house the officers found seven boilers filled with opium in the course of preparation and a quantity put up in five tea boxes. A large amount of crude opium put up in boxes was found in various parts of the house. It is supposed this drug was smuggled into port with a lot of China nut oil. The officers were unable to find any one in the house who laid claim to the opium.

Twelve sections on the plains southeast of Kern river have been taken by other parties. A few fractional sections on Kern island, first located by fraudulent scrip, have been located under the desert land law.

SALINAS, April 28.—After having been out 22 hours the jury in the case of People vs Ex-Deputy Tax Collector J. W. Rumsey, indicted for embezzling public moneys, came into court this afternoon and reported they were unable to agree upon a verdict. They were discharged upon the ground that they had balloted 22 consecutive times with the same result, and on the further grounds that Samuel Henderson, one of the jurors, was seriously ill and had been all night The first ballot stood seven for conviction, five for acquittal. Every subsequent ballot up to the time the jury were discharged, stood eight for conviction, four for acquittal.

Silver Coin—1@5 per cent. discount

In matters strictly financial we have no special changes to note.

The principal topic of thought in business circles is the marked and continued advance in the prices for breadstuffs, and we hear of no quotations for wheat less than $2 75 and ranging to $3 per cental. Flour, of standard brands is held at $5 25@5 50 per bbl.

Our dispatches to-day contain full reports of the excited condition of the breadstuffs markets at all the principal grain centers and will be read with great interest by a l persons engaged in producing or dealing in this staple.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, April 28—Members of the Produce Exchange told a Sun reporter that within the past month wheat has advanced 60 cents per bushel, corn 14 cents, and oats 10 cents, but there are other causes than war that influence the market To day the market is feverish, and long headed men think the advance has been too rapid True, we have had large orders from Europe, but the Liverpool market has been in sympathy with ours. Wheat there has advanced five shillings per quarter. The visible supply of wheat is small, but the corn supply has been greater than the demand.

The merchandise market is firm but more quiet; flour very strong, views of holders being more confident of the future. Several lots were withdrawn and limited selling, prices advanced fifty cents and in some instances a dollar on the trade of the day; prices realized were from 10 to 25 higher.

Wheat quiet and irregular values nominal. Refined sugar firmer, teas steady, wool unsettled in tone. On California stock about former rates are quoted, but a great many transactions are named on private terms, and exact values on doubtful lots of new. Springs are showing extremely poor quality and do not draw, bids in currency here equal to cost to gold sales of 62,000 bu spring, 28,000 bu fall, private, 120,000 pounds fall at 15c21, the latter top choice. Hides very firm. Hops in better demand, with some call for California, but there is a scarcity of these grades and only small amounts placed, quoted at 10@15. Petroleum and turpentine steady.

English Crops and Markets.

LIVERPOOL, April 27—A leading grain circular says the declaration of war by Russia has produced much excitement in wheat. Trade and prices have daily advanced at all markets of the kingdom, the average improvement from the opening of the week to yesterday being 4 shillings per quarter. Leading European markets have advanced quite as much Th.s market to day was well attended and a large business was done in wheat at an advance of one shilling per cental on currencies of Tuesday Flour was five shillings per sack and two shillings six pence to three shillings per barrel Maize was in active demand and the advance was quoted at three shillings per quarter

Liverpool Markets.

LIVERPOOL, April 28—Wheat 10s 3d@10s 5d for average California white, 10s 9d@10s 10d for club 10s@10s 4d for red winter

Eastern Wool Markets.

BOSTON, April 28.—Wool active—transactions 1,465,000 lbs; fine fleeces fast disappearing and stocks are much reduced, sales of Ohio and Pennsylvania 201 000 lbs, medium and X at 40@42 XX 40½@47 including heavy to choice XXX and pick lock 45@ 50; Michigan and Wisconsin in better demand sales of 190 000 lbs prices range from 36½@38, mostly at 37@38; combing and delaine dull; pulled in demand sales 314,000 lbs choice supers at 42½@46 good X pulled 37@40 combing pulled 43½@47½; California in good demand, sales 640 000 lbs fall at 15@21½, mostly at 16@18, spring 15@26,

NEW YORK, April 28.—The markets are quiet to-day, owing to the storm. Flour has taken a sharp advance in Europe, giving strength to the market, and full prices are asked. Wheat quiet, dull and unchanged, the export demand moderate Hides active, high prices restrict business, Leather very active prices tend upward under the prospective large demand for Europe Wool unchanged Call fornia in fair demand Refined sugar is in better demand, especially yellow grades with some purchases for the California market

London Stock Market.

LONDON, April 28.—To day the stock market was decidedly better in tone, especially for foreign Russians were better and Turkish no worse. The final fall for the week is on the Russians and Hungarian 3½@4, Turkish 1@1½ some of the latter changing hands at the lowest price ever reached
